FORMER EDITOR OF DOUGLAS DISPATCH IS MURDERED IN STREET AT CLIFTON BY CARPENTER

FRANKLIN B. DORR SHOT THROUGH STOMACH BY ALLENDER

After Being Wounded As

Through the Head Thereby Preventing His Arrest

TROUBLE GREW OUT OF INDEBTEDNESS

Assailant Had Made Threats in the Day-Time But on His Promise to Sheriff He Was Not Arrested

CLIFTON, Nov. 13.—Franklin B. Dorre, former editor of the Douglas Dispatch, was murdered on Main street, Clifton, last night. He was shot in the stomach by William Allender, a carpenter, but formerly interested in the Airborne theater recently purchased by Dorre who came here from Bisbee.

Allender claimed Dorre was indebted to him in the sum of $50. During the afternoon Allender went to the theater and demanded his money and Dorre promised to pay as soon as the receipts of the performances equaled this amount. Allender departed saying he would return in the evening to collect the amount due him and he said if he failed to get it there would be trouble.

Dorre Notifies Sheriff
Dorre notified sheriff John Patty of Allender's threats. When the picture show opened Tuesday evening Allender was on hand and tried to close the show and seize the box office receipts. Sheriff Patty and a deputy ejected Allender from the theater and the latter promised Sheriff Patty he would go home and not molest Mr. Dorre.

The last show at the Airborne was out at 9:30 o'clock in the evening. Dorre closed up and in company with his wife was walking down Main street on his way home. They were overtaken by Allender who carried a shotgun. He called to Dorre, demanding an immediate settlement of his account and as Dorre turned to face him, Allender was on him and with his shotgun within four feet of Dorre Allender fired and the entire load from the two barrels of his gun entered Dorre's stomach. Death was instantaneous.

Man Acts Like Maniac
After killing Dorre Allender fired about in the street and killed John Harrone, a saloon keeper, who was running across the street. Allender again fired and two Mexicans were wounded showing the man was crazy. He ran to his house which was surrounded by a posse. As Allender attempted to escape he was wounded by a deputy sheriff and he crawled back into the house and committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

Three men are in the morgue, Dorre, Harrone and Allender, and the wounded Mexicans are in the hospital. Dorre's body was picked up and carried into the Palace saloon on Chase creek and laid on a billiard table. His wife was carried from the scene prostrate. She is being cared for at the home of W. B. Kelly.

When Allender shot Dorre his wife was standing by his side. The funeral of Dorre will take place here Friday afternoon.

News of the tragedy at Clifton that resulted in the death of Franklin B. Dorre, formerly of this city, where he was engaged in the practice of law and latterly an attorney at law, caused a profound shock to his many friends here.

Sorrow at the tragic death of Mr. Dorre was mixed with sympathy expressed for his wife, who was formerly Miss Hamburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamburg, of Hamburg, Ariz., the camp of the Hartford Arizona mining company, to whom he was married about a year and a half ago.

Shortly prior to leaving Bisbee for Clifton Mr. Dorre gave much of his time and attention to the management of the Orpheum theater, in which he acquired an interest. He found the work fascinating and when he moved to Clifton he again entered that business and William Allender, purchasing a moving picture business.

When only the bare facts of the tragedy were known here, those who commented upon it expressed wonder that a man whose nature was so pre-

GETS WEALTH JUST BEFORE HYDE TRIAL

Mrs. B. C. Hyde.

Just two months before the date set for the third trial of Dr. B. C. Hyde, of Kansas City, Mo., charged with the murder of Colonel Swope, millionaire philanthropist, Hyde's wife received a share of Swope's wealth. She was given property from the estate valued at $115,000. Hyde is charged with having murdered Swope in order that his wife might get a share of Swope's property. He has had two trials on this charge, and will be tried for the third time early in January.

eminently peaceable should come to such a violent end.

He was one of the most democratic of men and his friendships entered all classes of society. He was as generous with his purse as he was with his sympathy and he extended both freely, the former many times to his own inconvenience. His office in the Medical building was the mecca of those in trouble and in need. The latest tribute paid to Franklin B. Dorre was uttered by a friend yesterday who remarked: "He would go to the limit for his friends, and the west knows no higher encomium."

Classmate of La Follette
As a lawyer Mr. Dorre was well equipped. He was a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and later attended the Harvard law school. In the Wisconsin University he was a classmate of Senator Robert La Follette.

For a time during his residence in Bisbee Mr. Dorre was a member of the law firm of Flannigan, Williams and Dorre. He and Ed J. Flannigan were the warmest of friends and Mr. Flannigan was visibly affected when he was informed by a Review reporter of the tragic death of Mr. Dorre. They were friends for many years. Said Mr. Flannigan:

"The news of the death of Frank Dorre was a great shock to me. We were on terms of close personal friendship for many years, and for a short time associated together with Mr. John S. Williams in the practice of the law. I had every opportunity to become thoroughly acquainted with his views and character. I never knew any one less inclined to be malicious or to harbor resentment, and he was to his intimates as to the outside world, jovial, generous and considerate of others. It is impossible for me to conceive a situation where a person desirous of avoiding trouble or contention would not be met more than half way by Frank Dorre. He was the soul of optimism and good will to every human being, and deep indeed must have been the injury which he could not overlook and forgive. His character was epitomically to 'live and let live' and to excuse and pardon the failings of others. In the broadest charity and good will."

Tells of Tragedy
W. B. Cleary, of the local bar, expressed sorrow at hearing of the tragedy. Said:

"When I heard of the killing of Frank Dorre by his partner, I was greatly shocked. I cannot conceive of a situation where it could be necessary for a man always one of the most genial and kindly disposed of men. I never heard him speak but in kindness of his fellowman. We were asked to name one who in his daily life exemplified the lovable traits depicted by Starnes in his character of Uncle Toby, that 'there is room in the world for thee and for me.' I should name Frank Dorre as the man. I am deeply grieved at his sudden and violent death, and my heartfelt sympathy goes out to his wife in her bereavement."

Expresses Sorrow
E. E. Ellinwood, who assisted in Flagstaff when Mr. Dorre lived in that county expressed sorrow at the tragedy when told of the Clifton tragedy and told of his high esteem for the deceased.

The attorneys only voiced the sentiment which was universal in Bisbee. Biographical Sketch
Franklin B. Dorre was about 45 years of age, a native of Wisconsin where his mother is yet living. He came to Northern Arizona in 1899, starting in the practice of law at Flagstaff. In the year 1900 he was the republican nominee for district attorney of Coconino county, being defeated by several votes. After the election he went to Los Angeles where he worked for a time on the Los Angeles Herald. In the spring of 1901 he came to Bisbee

PANAMA CANAL PASSAGE RATES MADE BY TAFT

President Issues Proclamation Fixing Charges for Vessels Using Waterway at Isthmus. $1.20 per Ton

SHIPS IN BALLAST ALLOWED LOW RATE

Payment Demanded Said to Be Same as Will Be Expected Next Year at Suez Navy Exempted of Tolls.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—President Taft issued tonight a proclamation fixing the rates that foreign shipping must pay for passage through the Panama canal. The proclamation is made under authority of the canal bill passed by congress last August and establishes a merchant vessel rate of $1.20 per net ton in actual carrying capacity, with a reduction of forty per cent for a ship in ballast.

The provisions of the proclamation follow: "On a merchant vessel carrying passengers or cargo, $1.20 per net vessel ton for each 100 cubic feet actual carrying capacity. "On vessels in ballast without passengers or cargo the rate will be forty per cent less than for vessels with passengers or cargo."

"Upon naval vessels, other than transports, colliers, hospital ships and supply ships, fifty cents per displacement ton and on army and navy transports, colliers, hospital and supply ships $1.10 per net ton, vessels to be measured by the same rules as is employed to determine the net tonnage of merchant vessels."

"The secretary of war will prepare and prescribe such rules for the measurement of vessels and such regulations as may be necessary, properly to carry this proclamation in full force and effect."

It is to this act that Great Britain protested, but no reference to the protest is made in the president's proclamation. American naval vessels are exempted without specific mention of either the act of congress or the proclamation because the authorities believe it unnecessary to explain the uselessness or payment from the navy department to the treasury department.

The rates named in the proclamation are practically the same as those which will be in force on the Suez canal next year. The president based the proclamation rates on the report and investigation of Professor Emory R. Johnson of the University of Pennsylvania, an expert.

The report has been awaited eagerly by the shipping interests throughout the world. According to Johnson's report, also made public tonight, the Panama canal should be on a self-sustaining basis in twenty years. It should compete successfully with Suez rates for traffic to Europe with South American west coast points. New Zealand cities cannot be expected to compete successfully for Europe's trade to the far east.

LORIMER IMPROVING
CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The proposed operation on Former Senator William Lorimer for appendicitis was performed today. He is showing signs of improvement.

BLOCK SIGNAL URGED
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 13.—According to inspectors of the Indiana Railway commission who investigated the wreck of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway at Clevington, a subway, early today in which fifteen lost their lives and seventeen others seriously were injured, a block signal system would have prevented the disaster. The wreck was caused by the failure of the head brakeman to close a switch to a siding on which a heavy freight train had been run to let a rapidly moving passenger train, which was hours late, go by.

YOUNG WOMAN FREED

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—Mrs. J. Rappe Myers, wife of Proctor Rappe of Greensburg, Pa., was shot by her daughter, Gladys Elizabeth Myers, in mistake for a burglar while sleeping in a car in a Pennsylvania Railroad train bound for New York. The mother died a short time later at a Trenton hospital. The shooting occurred when the train was passing Crofton, Pa., just this side of Bristol, Pa., near Trenton.

Miss Myers and W. R. Cuthbert, sixty years old, of Lynchburg, Va., were detained by the Trenton police for some time but were released to-night after a thorough investigation. It was thought at first that Cuthbert was concerned in some way with the shooting as he was found with Miss Myers at the side of the wounded woman a few seconds after she was found shot, which had aroused other passengers in the car and had brought the porter.

He explained he had been standing on the front platform of the car and had run in when he heard the shot. Miss Myers is about 20 years old and was on her way to New York to purchase a trousseau for her coming wedding to J. Blair Dillard, of Salem, Va. She had a basket of jewels which she was taking to New York to have repaired and when she heard her mother reentering their section after Mrs. Myers had gone for a few minutes to the dressing room. The girl took a revolver from under her pillow and fired, thinking a burglar was after the train. She was half awake at the time. Miss Myers' brother and fiancé are on the way from Salem and will arrive at Trenton early tomorrow. Her father also is on the way from Greensburg, accompanied by his attorney.

CHINESE MINISTER RESIGNS
PEKING, Nov. 13.—Liang Men Ting, minister of foreign affairs, has resigned. The reason for his resignation is said to be his refusal to comply with the wishes of the cabinet to begin negotiations with Russia concerning Mongolia, which Liang Men Ting considered tantamount to recognizing the autonomy of Mongolia.

According to Chinese report, Russia has pledged herself in a secret agreement to help maintain Mongolian independence and to extend the Mongolian territory to the great wall and obtain international recognition of Mongolia as a new state. In return Mongolia was to grant Russia a railway, mining concessions and supervision of foreign relations.

Trying to Prevent Attack Planned on Juarez at Frontier

Mexican Secret Service Officials and U. S. Military Forces Keep Lookout

EL PASO, Nov. 13.—Efforts of the United States military and Mexican secret service were directed today to prevent the development of the rebel plan of attack on Juarez, the Mexican border town and port of entry, so often threatened.

The arrests this week here and at San Antonio, of Col. Pascual Orozco, Sr., Col. David De La Fuente as directed resulted from a premature exposure of a rebel plot made known to the war department byadero men here. Arrests here are made possible by a "semi-martial" law which exists along the American side of the Mexican frontier. Military commanders at Fort Bliss and Juarez are alert. Patrols of American and Mexican troops are installed on either side of the line.

Rebels in apparently small groups are pressing towards Juarez from the east and the west but the movement of Mexicans from the American side are feared by the officials.

STOCK MARKET SHOWS LAXITY

Extreme Dullness Feature of Wall Street's Trading Mart Most of It Being Professional

COPPERS SLUGGISH

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Extreme dullness was the feature of today's stock market; price changes were irregular, but at the final hour the tone was steady. The trading was professional, but even this fact was adverse to taking on new commitments. Early there were efforts to procure steel, aluminum, copper, union Pacific, Smeltering and beet sugar, most of which developed short selling.

There was sluggishness in copper caused by reports of slight price concessions.

The monetary conditions were unchanged, call loans not going beyond six. Bonds were featureless. Total sales at par value $2,008,000. Government bonds were unchanged.

EDITOR TELLS STRANGE STORY

SALEM, Mass., Nov. 13.—Joseph Eltor testified today he told the foreign strikers at Lawrence that the constitution, laws, courts, police and soldiers belonged to the capitalists. ### TURKS USING OUT OF DATE MUNITION Powder Also Is Old and Correspondent Claims Soap Sent Instead of Explosives. Ottomans Short on Food.

SOFFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 13.—The official Mir, in an extra edition tonight, shows plainly that Bulgaria will join Serbia in defying Austria to prevent the allies from securing a seaport on the Adriatic, even though such action may plunge entire Europe in war. The newspaper was eagerly seized by the thousands on the streets and the contents of the ultimatum discussed by excited groups on every corner. The Mir in its article says:

War May Spread
"Any insistence on the part of Austria-Hungary tending to prevent a just and natural solution of the Balkan question, of which an outlet for Serbia on the Adriatic is a sine qua non, may sow seeds of a future war, which it will be no longer possible to localize."

The vanguard of the Serbian army has reached the Adriatic sea and at last accounts received here was preparing to occupy the port of Durazzo. The march of the Serbians through Albania encountered no resistance. Progress was slow, however, on account of the deep snow.

USING OLD MISSILES
BERLIN, Nov. 13.—The reason for the breakdown of the Turkish army before the invaders was brought to light by a dispatch from a correspondent of the Tagblatt. Writing from Uskup, after the battle of Kumanova, he said he found on the persons of fallen Turk soldiers many blank cartridges of old German rifles, used in 1871 and the awards of cavalrymen were found to be unsatisfactory, and the same was true of the bullets of the infantrymen. He saw a battery of field guns captured by the Serbians. The sights were fixed at 2500 yards, but the barrels were only slightly discolored by powder.

Opening the gunners boxes, they were found to be filled with squares or soap. Hunger, the correspondent added, was one of the main causes of Turkish defeat. Hundreds of Turks threw down their rifles and surrendered in order to get a piece of bread from the enemy.

NO FIGHTING AT TCHATALJA

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 13.—In the last forty-eight hours, according to advices received here there is no fighting in the Tchatalja lines, owing, it is believed, to the fact that negotiations for an armistice are proceeding directly with the Bulgarians and another factor which probably has contributed to upset the Bulgarians plans is the outbreak of cholera.
